YA Ministry

May 29

Raymond Lo, Charles Wong

Pray that keep this field of young adults and young families, that they have a firm base in the faith, and build the family around Christ. Pray that they can be the salt and the light in their work and community, and be a witness to the Gospel. Pray that God can strengthen their small group, and that they can care for each other; for each small group leader, to have a heart for outreach and be always-ready to receive this incoming immigration wave. Pray that God will use the young families as a bridge within the church and unify us. Pray that that the newly arrived youths and young adults can adjust to life in Canada and fit in with the church community.

Pray that God will renew us and revive the church through His Word, and that brothers and sisters are always eager to know God. Pray for the Sunday school teachers to be full of the Spirit, so that they can faithfully teach the word of God. Ask God to raise up believers with the gift of teaching to take on the ministry of Sunday school teachers. May God lead the Church and have spiritual gift to arrange different courses or lectures to serve the family of God. Pray for the Lord to use the Resource Center and the Children's Library to help believers be shaped by the Lord and grow spiritually.

Care Ministry

June 3
Albert Lee, Quoc Truong

Pray for the caring team, with its staff, team leaders and deputy team leaders numbering 200 people. Ask the Lord to protect them with a life loving God and others, being sensitive to each other's needs, and giving love and strength to shepherd fellow members and making disciples. With the gradual restart of physical gatherings, I ask Heavenly Father to give wisdom to every member of the caring team, to come up with appropriate gatherings for face-to-face interactions and meet and greets. Lord, please use the small groups, to let the church help those in need and shower them with the love of Christ. For the Cancer Support Group, to provide support for patients, recovered patients and their families, and help them overcome difficulties and encourage each other. Pray that the Lord will remember YASAD, and use love to support the families of children with special needs, that the Lord will empower them to face all kinds of challenges in life. Further, for the Lord to use the group to cheer up and encourage these families, so they can live out the Lord's love.

Missions Ministry

Kevin Chong, Francis Lee

Pray that God will inspire our burden towards world mission, that through prayer and service, we can become God's partner in missions, to be a witness of the power of the Holy Spirit. Please pray for our IWS, to have the wisdom to learn cross-cultural knowledge, to effectively evangelize the gospel, and awaken people's souls. May the Lord keep the missionaries' children with spiritual protection and grow healthily in body and mind. May the Lord raise up International works who are willing to commit themselves and become blessings of the unreached.
